KEEP SHAGGIN!!!

President's Letter

Greetings to you all! I know all of you are enjoying this beautiful weather and will come out to join us for some good old shagging times in the next few months. We now have a total of 146 members in the ISLANDERS SHAG CLUB. Barbara Tanner and I attended the winter workshop in Columbia and found that the majority of the club presidents that we talked with averaged around 100 to 150 members. It is not the numbers, but how active the members are and how much they participate in making their club successful. We are open to all suggestions and want to include all the membership in bringing forth ideas for a successful 2011.

I would like to recognize one particular and special member in this letter. Many of you probably do not know Bill Withrock but he joined our club about a year or so before we lost the clubhouse on Center St. He attended the first Shag-A-Thon that was held at the Citadel Mall and if you saw him on the dance floor you could tell he loved to dance. He has not been able to attend the clubs activities over the past few years, but has continued to re-up and also make considerable donations to the Islanders Shag Club with checks stating "DONATION, HAVE FUN". I have called Bill and thanked him personally, and the Board has sent thank you cards, but this month I would like to honor him by letting all members know what a special person he is and above all he "Loves to Dance", Thank you, Bill!

Please join us for upcoming socials and our next membership meeting will be at the Folly Beach Community Center May 21st (The Edge of America).

See you on the dance floor,
Marlee Hardy Jamison

NOTE: Business cards ads in the newsletter works. While processing the newsletter for the last web update, I found Julie Tillman's business card for accounting & CPA needs. I called her and we talked about my business needs for a CPA and doing my business & personal taxes. The point to this is to let everyone know that reads this, those business cards work. Julie did a fantastic job and even did stuff I was dreading doing. She was definitely a godsend for me. All I had to do was wait for my 2 big refunds she found for me. Julie definitely has my business. Thanks Julie!!

Michael Burnett
